

Scientific Symposium of the Research Center Neurosensory Science

"20th Anniversary of the Research Center Neurosensory Science at the University of Oldenburg"

6th October 2023 in A11 ("Aula" and Foyer, Campus Haarentor)

Program

- | | |
|----------------------|--|
| 13:30 – 13:45 | Welcome to the Symposium by the Managing Director of the Research Center, Prof. Michael Winklhofer, and by the Vice President Research and Transfer, Prof. Christiane Thiel |
| 13:45 – 14:15 | Prof. Reto Weiler and Prof. Georg Klump (Founding Members of the Research Center) - Greetings and Retrospectives |
| 14:15 – 14:45 | Prof. Dr. Jörg Albert (Sensory Physiology and Behavior) – „The Music in Mosquito Ears: Between Phantom Tones and Distortions“ |
| 14:45 – 15:15 | Prof. Dr. Pascale Sandmann (Clinical Audiology) - “Seeing while Hearing: Altered Audio-visual Interaction in Patients with a Cochlear Implant“ |
| 15:15 – 16:30 | Coffee-Break und Poster-Session in the Foyer |
| 16:30 – 17:00 | Prof. Dr. Jan Clemens (Neurobiology of Hearing) – “The Secret Social Life of Fruit Flies“ |
| 17:00 – 17:30 | PD Dr. Anna-Maria Hartmann - „Potentiating KCC2-Activity Induces Earlier Onset of Hyperpolarization in Auditory Brainstem Nuclei“ |

- 17:30 – 18:00 Prof. Dr. med. Simon T. Schäfer (Anesthesiology, Intensive Care Medicine, Emergency Medicine, Pain Therapy) – “Hypoxia Adaptation: From High Altitude to Critically Ill Patients”
- 18:00 – 18:15 Admission break for the general public
- 18:15 – 19:00 Prof. Dr. med. Dipl. mus. Eckart Altenmüller (Professor für Musikphysiologie und Musikermedizin, Direktor Institut für Musikphysiologie und Musikermedizin): „Apollons Gabe: wie Musik unser Gehirn verändert und heilt. Ein Gesprächskonzert“ - Öffentlicher Vortrag in Deutsch –
- 19:00 - 21:00 Opening champagne reception on the occasion of the 20th anniversary of the Research Center by the Managing Director of the Research Center Neurosensory Science, Prof. Michael Winklhofer

Sponsored by:

