

Movement Discourse

Historical and Contemporary Formations and Transformations

International Conference, University of Oldenburg
Senatssitzungssaal (A14 1-111), July 2-4, 2015

Organized by Anton Kirchhofer (Oldenburg) and Annika McPherson
(Augsburg) in cooperation with Eckart Voigts (Braunschweig), Martin
Butler and Albrecht Hausmann (Oldenburg)

www.anglistik.uni-oldenburg.de/movementdiscourse

Movement Discourse

Historical and Contemporary Formations and Transformations

Conference Programme

Thursday, 2 July 2015

9:00-9:30 Registration

9:30 Conference Welcome

9:45-12:30 Section I: Movement Discourse across the Disciplines, Part 1: Cultural and Empirical Perspectives in the Social Sciences

Chair: Anton Kirchhofer

Hank Johnston, "What's a Social Movement?"

Wouter de Nooy, "Sociological Theory and Network Models for Intellectual Movements"

Dieter Rucht, "Academic Conceptualisations of Social Movements as Agents of Social Change since the 19th Century"

LUNCH BREAK

14:00-16:30 Section II: Movement Discourse across the Disciplines, Part 2: Theorizing Narrative Patterns in Movement Discourse

Chair: Christian Lassen

Josephine Guy, "Literary Movements: What Are They? and Do We Need Them?"

Anton Kirchhofer, "Between Metaphor and Allegory: Functional and Rhetorical Perspectives on Movement Discourse"

Klaus Weinhauer, "Violent and Destructive Crowds? Imaginaries of Social Movements during the 20th Century"

COFFEE BREAK

17:00-17:30 Disciplinary Counterpoints:

Genevieve Warwick: "Movement Discourse and the New Art History"

17:30-18:30 Round Table: Transdisciplinary Perspectives?

Chair: Anna Auguscik

Friday, 3 July 2015

09:15-11:30 Section III: Mediation and Modes of Representation in Movement Discourse

Chair: Klaus Weinhauer

Kaitlynn Mendes, “‘Oh sorry, does my dress make you feel like a rapist today?’: Representations of SlutWalk in Global Newspapers and Feminist Blogs”

Bart Cammaerts, “The Mediation and Reception of Anti-Austerity Movement Discourses”

Martin Butler, “Punk is Dead. Or is it? On Strategies of Subcultural Positioning in/and the (Re-)Making of the Punk Movement”

COFFEE BREAK

11:45-12:45 Section IV, Part 1: Media, Subjectivity and Participation in Movement Discourse

Chair: Annika McPherson

Birger Hansen and Christian Lassen, “Confronting Trauma through Activism: Reparative Engagements with Social Movements”

Michaela Keck, “Gender, Critique, and Participation in the Black Freedom Movement: Anne Moody's Autobiographical Self-Fashioning in Coming of Age in Mississippi”

LUNCH BREAK

14:00-15:00 Section IV, Part 2: Media, Subjectivity and Participation in Movement Discourse

Chair: Eckart Voigts

Michaela Koch, “‘I have had the pleasure of corresponding directly with Cheryl Chase’: Political Intersex Activism and Academic Criticism”

Corinna Schmechel, “Athletic movements: About concepts of sporty activities as element of social and political movements on the example of feminist_queer sports-movements”

COFFEE BREAK

15:15-17:45 Section V: Historical Trajectories: Movement Discourse and the Threshold of Modernity

Chair: Britta Bußmann

Samuel Cohn, "Social Movements: Medieval Guilds and Cholera Riots in the 19th and 20th Century"

Wil Verhoeven, "Clubbable Conversation: Movements, Mobility and the Birth of Political Modernity in Britain, 1789-1803"

Albrecht Hausmann, "Movement(s) in Medieval and Early Modern Contexts"

18:00-18:45 Round Table

Chair: Martin Butler

Saturday, 4 July 2015

9:15-11:30 Section VI: Movement Discourse beyond Western Modernity: Transnational and Transcultural Perspectives

Chair: Ralf Grüttemeier

Gun-Britt Kohler, "'Movement Discourse' in Belarus (1906-1932)"

Brycchan Carey, "Navigation, Circulation, Migration, and Rotation: 'Incessant Movement(s)' in the Eighteenth-Century Caribbean World"

Annika McPherson, "South-North Entanglements in Movement Discourse: Theorizing Pan-Africanism"

COFFEE BREAK

12:00-13:00 Round Table and Closing Remarks

Chair: Annika McPherson and Anton Kirchhofer