

Ines Wolpmann

CV (Highlights)

Education

CARL VON OSSIETZKY UNIVERSITY OF OLDENBURG, GERMANY

Feb 2016 – ongoing PhD student. Thesis title: “Habitat preferences of invertebrate species colonizing drainage ditches”

CITY UNIVERSITY OF APPLIED SCIENCES, BREMEN, GERMANY

Mar 2014 – Dec 2015 MSc in Industrial and Environmental Biology (ISTAB). Thesis title: “Investigation on the benthic invertebrate community of two gravel-bottomed lowland rivers (Lehrde and Gohbach) in the district of Verden”

CITY UNIVERSITY OF APPLIED SCIENCES, BREMEN, GERMANY

Sep 2010 – Feb 2014 BSc in Industrial and Environmental Biology (ISTAB). Thesis title: “Settlement of macrozoobenthos one year after a partial renaturation of the Embser Mühlengraben, Bremen”

Research Experience

Jan – Dec 2015 Field and laboratory work for Master thesis, Lehrde and Gohbach stream, Germany

July 2013 – Jan 2014 Field and laboratory work for Bachelor Thesis, Embser Mühlengraben stream, Germany

June 2013 – Sep 2013 Photo identification on long-finned pilot whales for Ocean Sounds e.V., Norway

July 2012 – Dec 2012 Laboratory work for an internship at the Faculty of Biosciences and Aquaculture at University of Nordland, Norway. Topic: “Development of a biometric index for larval Atlantic cod (Gadus morhua Linnaeus, 1758) and study of the condition of cod larvae in the Hola trough of Northern Norway”

Scholarship

Jan 2013 – July 2013 ERASMUS scholarship for a study semester in Norway

Aug 2012 – Dec 2012 ERASMUS scholarship for an internship in Norway