

Spectral inequalities with sensor sets of decaying density

Albrecht Seelmann

(TU Dortmund)

We discuss spectral inequalities for the harmonic oscillator and more general Schrödinger operators with confinement potentials on the whole space. It turns out that the (super-)exponential decay of the corresponding eigenfunctions allows to consider sensor sets with a density that exhibits a certain decay. This, in particular, permits sensors with finite measure.