

Academic Studies

Bachelor of Arts in cultural studies and French romance studies
(University of Bremen and University of Avignon)

Master of Science in Public Health
(Jade University of Applied Sciences, Oldenburg)

2012-2019 Research assistant at the Jade University of Applied Sciences, Section Technology and Health (Oldenburg)

Winter Term 2018/19 and summer term 2019 Associate lecturer at the Ostfalia University of Applied Sciences, Faculty of Public Health Services (Wolfsburg)

commission work, review, host/moderations

Major Areas of Work and Research

Culture and Health. Cultural aspects and questions of health, social medicine, Health Services Research, cultural and sociological image of health and disease, culture and ethics in health care (provision), culture-sensitive care.

Autonomy. Patient autonomy in health care provision, advance directives, advanced care planning, life course, ageing, decease, death.

Work and Health. Work related health research, health policy, corporate/work/organizational culture in health care settings (Organizational Behavior, organizational mindfulness), social and living environment of health provision, multi-perspective concepts of organizational culture, participation (employees, residents/patients, relatives).

Qualitative Research.

Raised Funds

408.147 Euro

Languages

German – native

English, French – very good

Spanish – elementary