Information for Participants

1. Fees

(1) A fee is charged for each module booked. This fee is due at the beginning of the respective module. A corresponding invoice will be issued by the University of Oldenburg. Invoices are sent exclusively by e-mail (pdf attachment). The fees are stated in the current fee scheme found here: <https://uol.de/c31/bildung-management/online-teaching-and-learning-cas/fees>

(2) Alternatively, you can pay by monthly instalments over a period of six months. The first instalment is due at the beginning of a module, afterwards monthly at the middle of each month. Please notice that payment by instalments is only available via the SEPA direct debit payment option.

(3) If you want to use the price advantages of the discount scheme, the fees for the booked amount will be charged once with the beginning of the first booked module. The booked amount is available for four years. The discount scheme cannot be combined with the monthly instalment payment option.

2. Registration

(1) To register for one of the modules or a CAS programme, you must submit your Module Registration form before the module starts.

(2) Participants do not have to comply any admission requirements. But applicants to the certificate program should meet the following criteria.

- a) Applicants have been awarded a Bachelor degree or comparable degree.
- b) Applicants have at least one year of work experience.
- c) Applicants can demonstrate English proficiency (B2 Level: Upper/intermediate level). This can be demonstrated through successful completion of B2 Level English proficiency tests or through completion of a higher education program in the English language. Proficiency tests should not be more than two years in the past.

(3) You will receive a confirmation e-mail confirming receipt of your module registration.

3. Implementation

Content and organization, instructors, fees, etc. are described on the website: <https://uol.de/c31/bildung-management/online-teaching-and-learning-cas>.

4. Number of course participants

The minimum number of course participants for a scheduled course to take place is 10. For course modules that do not achieve a registration of 10 participants, the University of Oldenburg can cancel the module up until the first day of module start. The maximum number of course participants is 22. Admission to modules occurs in the order in which registrations are received.

5. Withdrawal

(1) Conditions for withdrawal and reimbursement are specified in the Fees and Payment Regulations of the University of Oldenburg (see: <https://uol.de/c31/bildung-management/online-teaching-and-learning-cas/fees>). This regulation is valid independently of already paid semester fees.

(2) In the event of premature termination of a module, fees may be reimbursed at the request of the student or guest student:

- All requests for reimbursement must be sent to the programme director.
- 100% of the course registration fee is reimbursed for cancellations requested before the course start date.
- 50% of the course registration is reimbursed for cancellations requested within the first two week of the course module.
- If you reregister for a cancelled module at a later date, the full course module fee will be charged at that time. Fees that have already been paid for the previous cancelled course will not be taken into account.

6. Services of the University of Oldenburg

The services of the University of Oldenburg include:

- provision of study materials at the beginning of the module,
- counselling and mentoring by mentors and lecturers,
- provision of an Internet-based learning environment and its support,
- execution and evaluation of examinations,
- issuance of a certificate at the end of the module. Participants who fail a module will receive a certificate of attendance.

7. Privacy statement

(1) Your personal data will be collected and stored in accordance with § 17 NHG (Lower Saxony's university data privacy law, <http://www.schule.de/22210/nhg.htm>) during your study period at the University of Oldenburg.

(2) The University of Oldenburg ensures that personal and company-related data exchanged within a module are handled confidentially and are not accessible to third parties.

(3) You agree not to make any data of other participants (personal or company-related data) available to third parties.

(4) To help us ensure learning support for participants, the number of logins in the internet-based learning environment are evaluated and made available to the lecturers and the programme management via the learning environment.
