

Ring Lecture RTG 2783 Neuromodulation – Winter Term 2024/2025

Tuesdays 14-16 h, room A7 0-036 and online via

<https://elearning.uni->

oldenburg.de/plugins.php/meetingplugin/room/index/9ebf4c7574e4a330bfd6d72ae720e948/3607f16cae9e89293c48b3de4d34f96b?cancel_login=1

- 22.10.2024 Christiane Thiel: Introduction RTG Neuromodulation: Aims and Scope
- 29.10.2024 Helmut Hildebrandt: The brain's blood supply and its disruptions
14:15 – 17:15
- 05.11.2024 Annika Notbohm: Neurorehabilitation after stroke
- 12.11.2024 Gesa Gerding: Phase D: back to daily routines / everyday life
- 19.11.2024 no lecture
- 26.11.2024 Susanne Arp: Neuropsychological practitioner from Hamburg
- 03.12.2024 Gesa Gerding: Patient communication: diagnosis, interaction, effects on daily life and life priorities
- 10.12.2024 Karsten Witt & Johannes Stalter: Typical and atypical forms of PD + first diagnosis followed by changes in daily life
- 17.12.2024 Helmut Hildebrandt: Landmarks of clinical MRIs
14:15 – 17:15
- 14.01.2025 Annika Notbohm: Diagnostics workshop with patient videos and cCTs/MRTs
- 21.01.2025 Annika Notbohm & Gesa Gerding: role play: communication between neuropsychologist, patient and family
- 28.01.2025 Helmut Hildebrandt: Clinical aspects of the brainstem and hypothalamus
14:15 – 17:15

NB: Courses by H. Hildebrandt probably finish by 17:15h, but this may also be a little earlier or later.