Keep in mind that every participant has to apply through his or her home university. Please note: Your application doesn't mean that you are selected automatically! We will distribute the available places equally among our partner universities. If we receive more applications than we have places available, the order of registration will decide. The successful candidate will be contacted by email confirming their acceptance in the programme shortly after the application deadline.

After completing and signing the form, please submit this document to the study abroad advisor at your university, who will be mailing the application no later than May 31, 2024 as a pdf-attachment (one document) to Ms Christine Trappe (summercourse@uni-oldenburg.de).
