

International DAAD Winter School

at the University of Oldenburg (Germany)

Empowering Teachers – Empowering Students

Strategies to transform teaching and learning

18–22 November 2024 (hybrid)

Interactive seminar sessions to enable future teachers to empower students to unfold their full potential.

Learn how to

- create meaningful learning experiences
- make students feel welcome and thus contribute to their well-being
- teach encouragingly and help students build up their self-confidence
- create inclusive classroom environments in which all students are seen and empowered to thrive

Register here if you're a student of teacher education

(all programs and subjects welcome): www.uol.de/winter-school/registration