ST. CLOUD MINNESOTA

Founded in 1869, St. Cloud State University is Minnesota's second-largest public university, with more than 13,000 total students, 1,300 international students, and a diverse faculty. SCSU is located about an hour northwest of Minneapolis, Minnesota, on the oak-crowned banks of the Mississippi River. Class sizes are small, with about 23 students per class.

SAFETY

From the moment you step onto our campus, your safety and security become a top priority. The St. Cloud State campus has a Public Safety Department open 24 hours per day and works to provide the safest environment possible for students.

PROGRAM COSTS

For the estimated expenses of spending a term at St. Cloud State, check out the Semester @ St. Cloud State website.

ACCOMMODATION

Semester at SCSU students have three options for on-campus accommodation.

SHOEMAKER HALL

A three-wing, 13-floor complex that houses more than 420 students, Shoemaker Hall is a mix of early 20th century Edwardian charm and 21st century amenities:

Modular, moveable room furnishings
24-hour technology lab with card-swipe access, air-conditioning in the east and west wings, quiet study areas throughout the building, kitchen/lounge facilities on each floor, and large rec room with billiards, ping-pong and foosball

LAWRENCE HALL

Lawrence Hall houses international students and domestic students in a setting that fosters cultural exchange.

Built in 1905, the four-story, brick-and-granite building has air-conditioned rooms, a lounge and small kitchen on each floor.

About 100 residents share a large television lounge, game room, laundry and family-style kitchen.

Lawrence also houses the Department of Languages and Cultures and the Center for International Studies.

CASE-HILL HALL

Case-Hill is two buildings connected by a large lobby that is a gathering place for socializing and studying.

The lower level has individual study rooms, a laundry room, multimedia center, kitchen and music practice rooms.

Case-Hill is one of two residential communities designated to serve students with special needs.

CAMPUS DINING

Our Garvey Commons dining facility offers delicious, healthy, dining options using only the freshest ingredients. Our meal plans appeal to a range of budgets and appetites. And, we have programs for students with special dietary requirements.

In addition to the all-you-can-eat Garvey Commons, we offer a range of great food options in Atwood Memorial Center.
