

Funding Opportunity for Students

Grants for materials and supplies for student research projects

Student research projects are central to many degree programs at the University of Oldenburg. These activities are bundled under the label forschen@studium and are centrally funded through the Research-Based Learning Grant Program that started in the Summer Semester 2021. Students can apply each semester for grants for their research projects.

➤ Who is eligible for funding?

Students currently enrolled in any Bachelor's or Master's degree program at the University of Oldenburg who wish to conduct a research project in small groups are eligible to apply. Students are responsible for writing a grant proposal. Their instructor(s) must confirm the supervision of the project including the responsibility for purchasing the required material. Final projects such as Bachelor and Master theses are excluded from funding.

➤ What is being funded?

Students can apply for grants (max. €500 per project) to fund consumable supplies and materials, travel expenses, etc. in their research projects. Research projects can either be part of regular or extracurricular courses.
