Arbeitsgemeinschaft Ökumenische Forschung
Ecumenical Research Forum

The Ecumenical Research Forum (ERF) was founded in 1988 in Germany. The ERF is primarily aimed at young researchers. It is an international open forum for all who are engaged in academic research and interested in its ecumenical dimensions. The ERF aims at facilitating an encounter for sharing research projects and exchanging ideas regarding ecumenism, missiology and challenges the churches are facing in the contemporary world.

Aim of the Annual Meeting

- Engagement with a current, for ecumenism relevant subject based on the keynote addresses
- Presenting and discussing research projects in an ecumenical and international environment (German or English)
- Networking, sharing information about coming events of interest, discussing the future work of ERF. Please bring with you flyers, posters and other information you would like to share!

Keynote Speakers

Dr. Uta André (Lutheran) is the managing director of studies at the Academy of Mission. Uta André participated in various ecumenical projects. She was a delegate of the Lutheran Church in Oldenburg at the meeting of the members of the Norddeutsche Mission. In 2007 she was a member of a group observing the parliamentary elections in Togo. Numerous journeys as a delegate, researcher and advisor led her to many countries of Latin America, and also to South Africa and South Korea.

Dr. Oleh Turij (Greek-Catholic) is Vice-Rector for Research and Publications at the Ukrainian Catholic University in Lviv. After his studies in (Ukrainian) Church history in Ukraine, Canada, Germany, Austria and in USA he was teaching at the Universities of Lviv and Innsbruck. Among other topics he is concentrating on the research about the conditions of the Churches of Eastern and Central Europe in post-totalitarian Societies.
